Bay Creek Resort & Club, Cape Charles, VA
A Crown Jewel of the Chesapeake

Bay Creek Resort & Club is defined by water, not only in name, but because water touches every aspect of life on the Eastern Shore. The Marina Villages is quickly becoming one of the crown jewels of the Chesapeake Bay region. With the world-class marina located in the protected harbor of King's Creek it provides deepwater access and serves as a perfect launching point for exploring the Intracoastal Waterway, the blue-green waters of the Chesapeake Bay and the open expanse of the Atlantic Ocean. This world class marina offers a deepwater channel with seven feet at MLW (always check for current conditions). Bay Creek has a state-of-the-art facility offering 224 slips (upon completion, currently has 123) and features no overhead obstructions with slips in size from 35 feet to 70 feet. Constructed of superior Brazilian Walnut decking, the full-length, fully-cushioned single loading slips can accommodate boats up to 150 feet. The Complete Angler marine store carries adventure wear and many supplies for the avid sports fisherman. It also carries convenience items for those who tend to forget the little things.

Once you have arrived and docked your vessel there are many things to do. With your choice of 2 golf courses one being the 7,250-yard Arnold Palmer Signature Course™ at Bay Creek Resort & Club shows the full measure of what an experienced golf designer can do with a naturally beautiful setting. The course made most Top Ten lists in the nation during its first two years. But the resort options don't stop there. There is something for everyone. State of the art tennis courts, shopping or even a luxurious day at the spa might be just what you are looking for.

Bay Creek offers dining at its best with 2 restaurants. One being the Aqua, located in the heart of Bay Creek's Marina Village on the Chesapeake Bay. Aqua offers an exceptional, varied menu. Executive Chef Amy Brandt brings out the finest of the Chesapeake Bay and Atlantic Ocean with her exciting and memorable dishes of the freshest seafood and local produce of the Eastern Shore. The international wine list offers popular and rare selections to please beginners and lifelong wine enthusiasts. In addition to seasonal menus, Aqua presents special features that change on a daily basis. Guests can enjoy a meal and cocktails in the lounge or outside on Aqua's expansive deck overlooking the bay. With its signature blue tiled columns, comfortable open spaces, back lit onyx bar and breathtaking views, Aqua is an experience you won't want to miss on the Eastern Shore.

The area around Bay Creek has much history and is now experiencing a vibrant revival, Cape Charles is a Victorian gem that was built by a Pennsylvania railroad magnate in 1883. It was the southern terminus of the newly extended railroad that connected the Eastern Shore to Philadelphia and New York, and served as the transfer point for passengers and cargo arriving from, or bound for, Hampton Roads. The new charm of Cape Charles offers visitors and residents a step back in time to a quieter life with many stores, restaurants and services to enjoy life on the Chesapeake Bay.

Bay Creek is a must destination whether you are taking a weekend or extended cruise. The marina resort offers everything from an abundance of activities or a relaxing day with breathtaking views. Let Marinalife book a reservation for you today! Visit www.marinalife.com.
